

My community and I listen to K-Love every day, all day. It has kept us going for years! If it is replaced with an LPFM it may become a station our families can no longer enjoy. There are few things that give back to our society. K-Love is one of those encouraging, life changing things, that helps communities flourish, please don't change it.